Hi Noah,

Forgive my ignorance and I do love bike stations. What does a bus stop have to do with drug trafficking? where do you recommend it gets moved ?

Hi Keyvan,

The last discussion involved the HCBID, CD14, and was being led by LAPD. Our Senior Lead Officer Sean Lewis is copied here. The motivation is to eliminate the drug trafficking that occurs along 5th Street. However, replacing the bus stop with a bike share station would be extra effective.

Noah,

Do you know who proposed the move and why? We were not aware of this. I am copying Keyvan who oversees bus stop relocations for LADOT so he is in the loop.

Thank you,

Rubina

I believe there's already been discussion of relocating the bus stop on the north side of 5th right in front of the last bookstore to further west down 5th. This would be a great use of the space.

Hey Rubina!

I just remembered I wanted to ask you about the possibility of a new bike share station at fifth and spring. I heard bike share may be adding new stations and would highly suggest this location. The Last Bookstore is one of the single biggest tourist attractions and gateways to DTLA, and you could probably get big traffic out of a station at this location.
